Minimalist

Focusing on uncomplicated forms, fluid lines, and circular shapes often found in nature, the Minimalist trend is contemporary-inspired. A serene, almost monochromatic palette of ivory, cream and gray evokes a feeling of openness with a counterpoint in textured finishes and mixed-metallic elements.

- T. 70094: Canvas, 36"L x 36"H
- U. 17061: Accent Table, 13"L x 13"W x 24"H

Aspen

The Aspen collection takes its cue from late Danish modern design. The uncluttered, sleek lines give items both form and function while making them on-trend and familiar at the same time. Add drama and focal points with geometric and angular shapes from the Pop Art movement.

Volcanic

Inspired by natural elements like charred wood and molten metals, we get drama in this trend. Black is chic, elegant, and never goes out of style and can look great as a small-scale accent or as a prominent focal point in a room. With iron décor, black wood finishes, and gorgeous wall art, you can be sure to make a statement.

Soft-Industry

The Soft-Industry collection pairs form and function to bring welcoming comfort by taking the edge off the modern industrial look. Rectangular shapes and black metal are softened with wood and mellow shades of blue. Cover bare walls with inspirational works of black-framed hand-painted contemporary art to add additional drama and style.
